

Tailoring Study Abroad

Jennifer Ewald

Joy Phaphouvaninh

A Brief History

Accessibility

- Content
- Country/City
- Cost

Viability

- Responsive
- Receptive
- Relevant

Definitions

- Provider
- Exchange Partner
- Direct Enroll
- Faculty Led
- Center
- Strategic Partner
- V.I.E.W.S.

Our Proposal

1. Shared Advising
2. Preferred Programs
3. Nominations

Objectives

1. Identify optimal study abroad destinations for your students
2. Simplify course approval process for those programs
3. Identify target populations in your college for study abroad
4. Identify allies, advocates, mavericks and mavens to make your job easier
5. Outline a collaboration strategy for Preferred Programs in your department

Preferred Programs

- Where do your students currently go?
- What makes an ideal program destination?
- What relationships exist within your department that could be cultivated for optimal study abroad experiences for your students?
- With whom would SAO consultancies be shared?

STUDY ABROAD

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

Economics students are strongly encouraged to study abroad. Not only is it a wonderful experience, a time to explore a different country and culture, as well as a good addition to your college life, but you also earn Illinois credit through most programs.

Why Study Abroad?

- Develop international and comparative analysis skills in Economics
- Deepen your understanding of our globalizing world
- Hone cross-cultural communication skills that are critical for career development

Preferred Programs

The following programs offer pre-approved courses in Economics that fulfill major elective or general education requirements.

- Stockholm University Exchange in Stockholm, Sweden (Academic Year, Spring or Fall)
- Illinois Center in Rome, Italy: Food Studies (Summer including internship option or Fall)
- Illinois Center in Granada, Spain (Spring or Fall)
- Yonsei University Exchange in Seoul, South Korea (Academic Year, Spring or Fall)
- In addition, explore 200+ programs at: www.studyabroad.illinois.edu
- Financial Aid and Scholarships are available: www.studyabroad.illinois.edu/scholarships

To discuss how Study Abroad fits in your 4-year plan, contact your Academic Advisor in the Department of Economics
214 David Kinley Hall (DKH); 1407 W. Gregory Dr., Urbana | Monday-Friday 8:30am-12pm and 1pm-5pm (except holidays) | 217-333-2682 | econug@illinois.edu

Study Abroad “Consultancy”

Study Abroad “Consultancy”

Program Name by Country	Number of Students
▼ Australia	3
SAO University of Melbourne	1
SAO University of New South Wales	1
SAO UNSW Summer School	1
▼ Austria	12
LAS-German Austria-IL Exchange Prog.(AIEP)Vienna	2
LAS-Political Science Vienna Diplomatic Program (VDP)	4
LAS/SAO Course Abroad: PS 300: World War I and International Relations Theory, Vienna (summer)	1
LAS/SAO Course Abroad: PS 394: Crisis Diplomacy, Vienna (summer)	1
Summer LAS/SAO Course Abroad: GER 103 in Vienna	2
Summer LAS/SAO Course Abroad: PS 394, Vienna	2
▼ Brazil	1
SAO Exchange: Pontificia Universidade Catolica do Rio de Janeiro	1
▼ China	4
RM: Study Tour for Credit	1
SAO Exchange: Chinese University of Hong Kong	1
SAO Exchange: The University of Hong Kong (HKU)	1
Winter LAS/SAO Course Abroad: Global Studies, GLBL 298, Shanghai, China	1

Course Approval

- Level of study
- Type of credit/course
- Length of study/term

Nominations

- What makes a student a good Study Abroad candidate?
- What populations of students in your department could be identified as Study Abroad candidates?
- What courses in your department create leads to Study Abroad?
- What support could be created around SAO for nominees?

Pros & Cons

Advocates & Allies

Obstacles & Adversaries

Next Steps

- Collaboration Strategy
  - Consultancy
  - Preferred programs analysis
  - Articulation
  - Embedded advising
  - Information sessions for your department
  - Nominations and exchange preference
  - Student support services